

ICSPP TENTH ANNUAL INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

UNIVERSAL MENTAL HEALTH SCREENING AND DRUGGING OF OUR CHILDREN: RISKS VS BENEFITS

Focusing on Medical, psychological, legal, policy and economic issues

1. Adult, Child And Parental Legal Rights and Responsibilities
2. Validity and Reliability of Mental Screening Tests
3. Efficacy and Side Effects of Psychotropic Drugs
4. Effective Humanistic Approaches to Child Development
5. Policy and Economic Aspects

INTERNATIONAL CENTER FOR THE STUDY OF PSYCHIATRY AND PSYCHOLOGY, Inc. with the collaboration of the EDWATCH, MIND-FREEDOM, EAGLE FORUM, LAW PROJECT FOR PSYCHIATRIC RIGHTS (PSYCHRIGHTS®)
and AMEDCO, LLC

ICSPP

A TWO-DAY MULTI-DISCIPLINARY SEMINAR CONFERENCE FOR PROFESSIONALS, STUDENTS, AND THE GENERAL PUBLIC

Marriott Crystal City Hotel at Reagan Airport
1999 Jefferson Davis Highway
Arlington, Virginia
Phone: 703-413-5500

OCTOBER 13th and 14th, 2007 8 A.M. – 6:30 P.M.

Conference highlights

20 plenary sessions and 20 paper presentations including:

Theresa Rhodes and Laurie Yorke - Two mothers will tell the truth about the effects of psychotropic screening and drugs on their children.

Peter Breggin, M.D. - The Truth about Bipolar Disorder in Children

Vera Sharav, MS - America's Children Need a Child Rescue Operation

Karen Effrem, M.D. - Universal Mental Health Screening: The Facts

Honorable Indiana State Representative Cindy Noe - Universal Mental Health Screening: Another Attack on Parental Rights

James Gottstein, J.D. - The Psychiatric Drugging of America's Children: Legal Rights of Children and Parents

Grace Jackson, M.D. - Chemo Brain – A Psychiatric Drug Phenomenon

Bose Ravenel, M.D. - Common Behavioral and Learning Problems in Children: An Alternative Non-medical Approach A Pediatrician's Perspective

Go to www.icspp.org for complete conference schedule & registration information.