

ECT INFO PACKET

1. Disabling the Brain with Electroshock Peter Roger Breggin
2. Neuropathology and Cognitive Dysfunction From ECT Peter R. Breggin
3. Peter Breggin's Testimony
4. Shock Treatment, Brain Damage, and Memory Loss: A Neurological Perspective John Friedberg
5. ECT: Is It Unsafe and Ineffective? Edward M. Opton, Jr.
6. Concussing the Brain with Electroconvulsive Shock Therapy (ECT): An Appropriate Treatment for Depression and Suicidal Ideation Gregory J. Boyle
7. Can ECT Permanently Harm the Brain? Donald Templer and David Veleber
8. Cognitive Functioning and Degree of Psychosis in Schizophrenics given many Electroconvulsive Treatments Donald Templer, Carol Ruff and Gloria Armstrong
9. Long-Term Effects of Electroconvulsive Therapy Upon Memory and Perceptual-Motor Performance Herbert Goldman, Frank Gomer and Donald Templer
10. Electroconvulsive Therapy and Complaints of Memory Dysfunction: A Prospective Three-Year Follow-up Study Larry Squire and Pamela Slater
11. Cognitive Functioning in Depressed Geriatric Patients with a History of ECT Helen Pettinati and Kathryn Bonner
12. The Effects of ECT Modifications on Autobiographical and Verbal Memory Walter Daniel, Herbert Crovitz, Richard Weiner and Helen Rogers
- 13A. Multiple-Monitored Electroconvulsive Therapy Barry Maletzky
- 13B. Electroconvulsive Therapy NIMH/NIH Consensus Conference
14. Differential Memory Complaints After Bilateral and Unilateral ECT Joanne Rosenberg and Helen Pettinati
15. In Favor of Wider ECT Ban Sidney Sament
16. Electroconvulsive Therapy Report of the Task Force on ECT of the APA
17. Electroshock: key element in personality-changing therapy
18. The Structure of Psychiatry in the Soviet Union Edward Babayan
19. Neurologic fragments. II. Remarks on anosognosia, confabulation, memory, and other topics; and an appendix on self-observation C. Miller Fisher
20. ECT-Ban Controversy Peter Breggin
21. Electroshock therapy and brain damage: The acute organic brain syndrome as treatment Peter Breggin
22. The Shame of My Life Peter Breggin
23. Memory Complaint After Electroconvulsive Therapy: Assessment with a New Self-Rating Instrument Larry Squire, Wetzel, and Slater
24. ECT III: Enduring Cognitive Defecits (sic)? D.Weeks, C.P.L. Freeman and R.E. Kendell