Re: In re Zyprexa MDL (Subpoena to Dr. Egilman)

Dear Andy:

This letter confirms my receipt of your letter this afternoon and, in addition to substantively addressing your letter, also serves to set forth the history concerning my knowledge and involvement with the underlying issues that you have addressed concerning the subpoena that was served by James Gottstein, Esq., upon Dr. David Egilman.

Please be advised that until December 13, 2006, no individual at The Lanier Law Firm, including me, had any knowledge that a subpoena had been served upon Dr. Egilman. Such knowledge was first acquired when PSC Member, James Shaughnessy, Esq., directed an e-mail to the PSC in which he notified the PSC that Dr. Egilman was served with a subpoena.

On December 13, 2006, you contacted my office to determine if Dr. Egilman was retained by The Lanier Law Firm. I acknowledged that he was and I advised you to immediately file a motion to quash the subpoena in both Alaska and Massachusetts. Thereafter, I communicated with Dr. Egilman that nothing should be done in accordance with the subpoena until this issue was addressed by Lilly before the Court.

After receiving your letter this afternoon, I again communicated with Dr. Egilman. During my conversation with Dr. Egilman I addressed your letter and asked him if and when he complied with the subpoena. Dr. Egilman informed me that he had already complied with the subpoena by transmitting documents to James B. Gottstein, Esq., prior to my conversation with him on December 13, 2006.
