Case No. 11-CV-236-JPS

ORDER

The United States and the State of Wisconsin having declined to intervene in this action pursuant to the False Claims Act, 31 U.S.C. § 3730(b)(4)(B), the court rules as follows:

IT IS ORDERED that:

1. The complaint be unsealed and served upon the defendant by the relator;
2. All other contents of the court's file in this action shall remain under seal and not be made public or served upon the defendant, except for this Order, the United States' Notice of Declination to Intervene, and the State of Wisconsin's Notice of Declination to Intervene, which the relator will serve upon the defendant only after service of the complaint;
3. The seal shall be lifted as to all other matters occurring in this action after the date of this Order;
4. The parties shall serve all pleadings and motions filed in this action, including supporting memoranda, upon the United States as provided for in 31 U.S.C. § 3730(c)(3). The United States may order any deposition transcripts and is entitled to intervene in this action, for good cause, at any time;

5. The parties shall serve all notices of appeal upon the United States;

6. The parties shall serve all: pleadings; motions filed in this action, including supporting memoranda; and notices of appeal upon the State of Wisconsin;

7. All orders of this court shall be sent to the United States;

8. Should the relator or the defendant propose that this action be dismissed, settled, or otherwise discontinued, the court will solicit the written consent of the United States before ruling or granting its approval; and

9. Both the United States and the State of Wisconsin have reserved their respective rights to intervene or move to dismiss the relator's action at a later date, upon a showing of good cause.

Dated at Milwaukee, Wisconsin, this 13th day of September, 2011.
