Re: Trial Exhibits in Eli Lilly and Company v. Bloomberg News and State of Alaska, Alaska Supreme Court Case No. S-13152; Superior Court Case, Alaska v. Eli Lilly & Co., 3AN 06-5630 CI.

Dear Ms. Wade:

I would like to review and probably make copies of the trial exhibits in the above referenced case and understand they have not been transmitted to the Supreme Court as part of the record in the above referenced case.¹ I am therefore requesting that they be transmitted to the Appellate Clerk's Office in order for me to review and probably copy them.

It is not entirely clear to me whether I should make this request to you or Judge Rindner and if I should request them from Judge Rinder, just let me know. You should have received a copy of my letter to Judge Rindner regarding the remaining sealed envelopes. It seemed to me that request should at least first go to Judge Rindner so that is what I did. For these, however, it seems to me they are part of the record on appeal and therefore the request should go to you.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Yours truly,

Jim Gottstein

¹ I have downloaded copies of the Exhibits that were posted on the Anchorage Daily News website, but (a) I don't know if these were all of the Plaintiff's Exhibits, and (b) I would like to have a copy with the Exhibit Sticker showing.
