Respondent.) Case No. 3AN-13-02737 PR

ORDER TERMINATING GUARDIANSHIP AND DISMISSING CASE

A guardianship review hearing in the above-captioned matter was held on June 13, 2014. Present at the hearing were: the assigned guardian and conservator, Steven Young; the Public Guardian, Elizabeth Russo; the respondent, Bret Bohn (telephonic); the attorney for the respondent, Carolyn Perkins; the respondent's parents, Lorraine Phillips and Glenn Bohn; the parents' attorney, Mario Bird; the Court Visitor, Collene Brady-Dragomir; the petitioner, Tammy Hunter of Adult Protective Services; and the petitioner's attorney, Nevhiz Calik Russell.

At the hearing most of the parties stipulated to termination of appointment of the Public Guardian, Office of Public Advocacy, as guardian and conservator for the respondent. The petitioner took no position. Therefore, based on the agreement of most of the parties to termination of the Public Guardian, Office of Public Advocacy, as guardian and conservator for the respondent, and further having received the recommendation of the Court Visitor on record and having heard from the parties and the respondent;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. The court finds that the respondent, Bret B. Bohn, is no longer incapacitated and is no longer in need of any type of protective appointment. All of the respondent's civil rights shall be reinstated as they were prior to this case.
