

Katsumi Kenaston

June 28, 2002

Dear Members of the Board,

As it is clear a majority of the board has lost confidence in my leadership, I hereby submit my resignation as a member of the board of directors of the Alaska Mental Health Consumer Web.

I am returning with this letter the keys to the van (which is parked in the lot) and the Computer Connection. A resolution for new check signers should be adopted and the other ordinary corporate and administrative details that accompany such a change in leadership should be taken care of.

The last day of the state's fiscal year, and our grant, is this Sunday and it appears there is still $6,474.74 available in the Computer Connection grant and $525.69 available in the Consumers Counsel grant which must be encumbered by then or returned to the state. It has been our practice to have checks issued by the fiscal year end in order to have a clean, no questions, year-end closeout.

I wish you the best of luck in your stewardship of the Alaska Mental Health Consumer Web. Consumers are counting on you.

Sincerely,

/s/

Katsumi Kenaston