

Kathy Flaherty

Kathy's first connection with CLRP was as a summer intern after her first year at Harvard Law School. Kathy served two terms on the CLRP Board of Directors, including one term as the Chair.

Kathy re-joined CLRP in 2014 as Associate Executive Director. In June 2015, she became Executive Director.

Kathy spent almost 15 years as a Staff Attorney at Statewide Legal Services of CT, Inc., the centralized intake hotline for all the Connecticut legal services programs, and two years at Connecticut Legal Services.

Kathy has personal experience as a recipient of mental health services and a client of a court-appointed attorney in a civil commitment proceeding.
