PRIORITY/GOAL DESCRIPTION	Protect the rights of people to not be psychiatrically confined, and/or drugged or electroshocked against their will, unless the constitutional, statutory, and judicial requirements for such massive deprivations of liberty exist, including the right to the least restrictive and least intrusive alternative, respectively.
OUTCOME	The rights of PAIMI eligible individuals will be protected.

ACTIVITY	OBJECTIVE	PROJECTED
CASEWORK – SYSTEMS – Legislative / Regulatory Advocacy	Draft and submit proposed legislation to bring Hawaii's involuntary commitment, treatment over objection, and assisted community treatment statutes into compliance with constitutional requirements, including supporting legal memorandum.	1
CASEWORK – SYSTEMS – Legal Advocacy	Bring or participate in cases for final appellate decision to enforce the statutory and constitutional rights of PAIMI eligible individuals in involuntary commitment, treatment over objection, and assisted community treatment cases as allowed by the PAIMI statute and regulations.	2
CASEWORK – SYSTEMS – Legal Advocacy	Lay the groundwork and possibly bring or participate in systems litigation to enforce the constitutional rights of PAIMI eligible individuals in an involuntary commitment, treatment over objection, and assisted community treatment case as allowed by the PAIMI statute and regulations.	1
OUTREACH	PAIMI will outreach to the State of Hawai‘i Office of the Public Defender regarding possible cooperation and coordination.	1
EDUCATION	PAIMI will provide legal education to the State of Hawai‘i Office of the Public Defender.	1
OUTREACH	PAIMI will outreach to the Hawai‘i Judiciary regarding the rights of PAIMI eligible individuals.	1
OUTREACH	PAIMI will outreach to Crisis Response Centers, Respite Centers, Police Chiefs, CORE, and Emergency Rooms to inform them of PAIMI's purpose, the rights of PAIMI eligible individuals, and HDRC's rights of access.	15