Dear Special Discovery Master Woodin,

I understood from your voice mail that it would be acceptable for me to return your call any time during the weekend, which I intended to do. However, since you issued the order without giving me a chance to respond, dealing with that seems the matter at hand. I may seek my own counsel, but I hope to have a letter back to you before the end of the weekend. First, to allay any concerns, I voluntarily ceased further dissemination of any of the materials when I received Mr. Jamieson's fax on December 15th and won't further disseminate them without at least reasonable notice. I will say the whole thing seems silly since they are already in the public domain.

I am working on a response to your order. It seems highly irregular in many respects. I won't go into all of them now, but that you would issue such an order "based on the facts described by [Eli Lilly and the PSC]" without giving me a meaningful opportunity to respond is one of them. Please provide me with exactly what facts were alleged in these ex parte proceedings.

You also recite the order was "in the exercise of my authority as Special Discovery Master." It is very difficult for me to see how the order could be within such authority so please provide me with a copy of the order of reference or whatever document(s) there are granting you your authority.

Probably the key flaw in your Order, other than I am at a loss to understand how you believe the court has obtained jurisdiction over me, is that my possession of the documents is "in violation of CMO-3." I believe they came into my possession completely legally. If I tried to put all of the analysis in this e-mail, I would defeat my purpose in quickly letting you know that I will be responding and that the status quo is being maintained. I hope to be able to get it to you tomorrow. However, there is also an expedited motion regarding discovery in the Alaska case that needs a response by noon on Monday, so that might present a problem.

I have had no response from you to my voicemail message earlier today. I attach an order issued by me, in my capacity as Special Discovery Master in the Zyprexa multi-district litigation pending in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of New York, directing you to return to me all copies of the documents produced by Eli Lilly and Company in this litigation which you received from Dr. David Egilman or anyone else.

Thank you,

Dear Judi,

I mailed you a DVD (or two) with some documents on them pertaining to Zyprexa and have been orally ordered to have them returned to:

Special Master Peter H. Woodin
JAMS
280 Park Avenue, 28th Floor
New York, New York 10017

A copy of the proposed written order is posted at <http://psychrights.org/States/Alaska/CaseXX/EilLilly/ProposedOrder.pdf> with a comment about certain language which I strenuously disagree with and we are trying to get eliminated from the signed order. Regardless, please return the DVD, hard copies and any other copies to Special Master Woodin immediately. If you have not yet received it, please return it to Special Master Woodin when you do receive it. In addition, please ensure that no copies exist on your computer or any other computer equipment, or in any other format, website(s) or FTP site(s), or otherwise on the Internet.

There is a question in my mind that the court actually has jurisdiction over me to issue the order. I believe I came into the documents completely legally, but the consequences to me if I am wrong about the jurisdiction issue are severe, so I will very much appreciate your compliance with this request.

Dear Jim,

As of now, I have not received the DVDs, but when I do, I will mail them to the address in your e-mail unless I hear from you otherwise in the interim. As far as I know, I have no information in this regard stored on my computer.

Keep up the good fight!

Hi Everyone,

I was, of course, ordered to give them your names. I hadn't posted my Compliance Certificate before because I didn't want to get you publicly involved without asking you all first. With the new order you all have been publicly identified so I thought I might as well go ahead and post the Compliance Certificate.

<http://psychrights.org/states/Alaska/CaseXX/EliLilly/SignedComplianceCertification.pdf>

I do apologize for getting you in the middle of this without asking you all first. Since I have decided to comply with the order against me, I reiterate that I am asking you all to return the DVDs to the Special Master, and take any documents down from any websites. I won't go into why I decided to comply with the order against me in an e-mail.

With respect to the order against you all, I'm afraid I have to advise you to seek your own counsel. I know that is not feasible for at least a few of you and I apologize again for getting you in the middle of this.

Okay, mystery solved about one thing -- where Eli Lilly got your names.

I don't have the e-mail addresses for the other names on that court order, someone else has hopefully told them about the alert and the pdf below.

See Jim's "compliance order" in the pdf he supplies -- he listed where he had disseminated the documents, including you, I'll copy to Jim.

Hi Judi,

I apologize for getting you in the middle of this. You can e-mail Peter Woodin, the Special Master at pwoodin@jamsadr.com telling him you haven't received it, and that you will mail it to him at the following address if you do receive it.

Special Master Peter H. Woodin
JAMS
280 Park Avenue, 28th Floor
New York, New York 10017

You might want not to even open the mailer before sending it back.

Dear Jim,

I'm concerned that I am named in the injunction. I have NO copies of these materials. Who shall I notify, and in what form (this seems to be a different name than the one you sent me earlier)?

I'm inclined to say something along the lines of "Although James Gottstein, Esq., indicated that he had sent a copy of the documents to me via U.S. mail, as of this date I have received no such documents. Should I receive them, I will send them to ..."

Please advise.

Thanks.

Gosh, what a mess. I'm sorry but I wasn't aware of any court order at the time I downloaded the "secret zyprexa documents" so, I not only downloaded them but I made several copies (burned them to CD's) and distributed them. I mailed them to some family and friends as well as several newspapers (in Ohio and Oregon). Since I had some extra copies (about 40 or so) I also passed them out to folks who seemed interested as I stood outside of a shopping center store. I have no idea who these strangers were so I can't possibly get these CD's returned. I'm so sorry. I figured since you're making such a fuss over the thousands of copies that went over the internet, I'd better let you know that this "secret" has spread and I really can't help stop the spread at this point. Sorry.

Sincerely,
Pat Risser
