Hello, dream girl, Sorry to hear about your bad dreams...wouldn't worry, as the unconscious usu. doesn't make sense...can't imaging being cold to you, or displeased to hear from you- quite the opposite! I've been trying not to look to often at the calendar, as the days are going SOO slowly..As for the typing....you've no need to re- prove your literary prowess with me...though, I'm not guaranteeing your typos won't add to your punishment time! REDACTED

REDACTED Had a great weekend- near perfect weather, lots of outdoor time, baseball, tinkering with my pruning shears...Saw the movie "Spiderman" on Fri withthe kids and their friend; great entertainment. Still prefer Batman, though, if I had to choose. ..I like the caped crusader's toys better, and the Catwoman is still the hottest villian.... Did you move residences yet? Thought it was the beginning of May.....good luck if you are! There is an AZ sponsored brunch of Sunday, a "young minds award" thing...(will you be there? not sure if I can get an extra ticket from this end, but I'll ask...)need to go to that one, and one more from the Univ of Penn afterwards, but that's all I'm sure of re: my obligations at present...was assigned to be part of a "Bipolar SWAT " team, to learn of the comptetions' strategies.....very cloak and dagger stuff- I wonder if I'll have a "License to Kill"? ..... Hello my beautiful darling, another attempt to write something coherent whilst at home - I cringe whenever I re-read what I've written from here as there are always so many spelling mistakes and typos- it makes me think of that other woman you had the fling with who couldn't spell and how you were turned off, and wonder whether my fate will be the same.. (please no!) I do have an excuse though as I am always in such a panic if I'm writing at home, and DO get interrupted a lot - sometimes (like last time - hadn't even addressed you properly-please forgive me - (though I'm sure you won't -just add it to the punishment list)) have to just press "send" and hope for the best. Hope your weekend has been fun - mine is still going till Tuesday - had the family do thing today which was fine - I spent most of my time playing with the boys; am taking REDACTED to a party and then both of them bowling tomorrow, and just counting the days! Had a ghastly dream about you last night - I had rung you at work and you were not at all pleased to hear from me- you were really cold and dismissive - then was somehow in your house and you were being really horrible and mean to me there too and I couldn't work out why; woke up feeling very sad and then realised

I'd only been dreaming but the feeling persisted somehow and I felt out of sorts for about an hour after getting up - silly I know, but dreams can be SO realistic. On a happier note, my abstract for the BAP has been accepted and the book is just about ready for typesetting;so I'm excited about that - it looks like (counting August) I'll be travelling about once a month for the next 6 months or so which suits me fine - just wish I had some interesting company apart from August - almost seems like a waste of good legit time away when you won't be there, but still gives me breathing space I guess (and I'm getting well paid for most of it too!) I haven't actually got a list of dinners etc yet - all I've been given is a list of AZ sponsored functions that I doubt I'd be attending anyway - most are 8am meetings and evening lectures (they may, however stand you in good stead as an escape mechanism...) so if you like (let me know if it's cool) I can fax you the list - I'm sure you'll get one anyway. Am feeling extremely fond of you this evening - will stop now before I go soppy. For the umpteenth time, really can't wait to see you and hold you again, RE oxoxox
