Re: Bavilla v. State, 3AN-04-5802 Civil

Dear Mr. Gottstein:

Attached please find the Department's response to your motion for a temporary restraining order. Ms. Bavilla's medical and mental health files are also ready for you to pick up. The files consist of 1009 pages. Pages 526 through 531 are reports from API and have been removed because further disclosure is prohibited by Ms. Bavilla's release. The state charges $0.10 per page for copies and $23.00 per hour for processing copies for litigation. This copying project took approximately 1.5 hours. Thus, please remit the amount of $134.80 for these copies. Checks should be made out to the State of Alaska. You have not been charged for the six pages that were not provided. Please be advised that these charges are payable in advance of the receipt of the copies.

I apologize for not notifying you earlier today that Ms. Bavilla's records were available but they were not processed until early afternoon and at that time I was occupied with responding to your motion for a temporary restraining order. I am in the process of obtaining a copy of Ms. Bavilla's institutional file and will contact you when it has been received to determine whether you indeed want a copy.

Sincerely,

GREGG D. RENKES
Attorney General
